A Message from His Excellency the Governor by Mr. Secretary Reed, was read in the Words following :

‘ Trenton, 7th November, 1783.

‘ GENTLEMEN,

I HEREWITH lay before the Honourable House the Papers which I have officially received since the last Session of the Legislature; a List of which is also herewith transmitted respecting Mr. Morris’s Nomination of Benjamin Thompson, Esquire, for Commissioner to settle the Accounts between the State of New-Jersey and the United States; and to settle and liquidate in Specie-Value all Certificates given by publick Officers to Individuals in the State, and other Claims by such Individuals against the United States, according to the Term and Effect of an Act of Congress of the 20th of February, 1780 (which said Nomination is marked No. 24.) I have it to observe to the Legislature, that solicitous as I was to have such Commissioner nominated by Mr. Morris as soon as possible, for which I can appeal to my having addressed him twice to that Purpose since the last Session of the Legislature; yet I thought it most prudent for the following Reasons not to confirm his Appointment when I received it, though Congress has vested the Executive as well as the Legislature of this State with that Authority :

‘ 1st. Because some considerable Time had elapsed between the Date of Mr. Morris’s Letter notifying to me the said Appointment, and my Receipt of that Letter, which brought it so near to the Meeting of the present Assembly, that, had I summoned a considerable Number of the Council whose Advice I should naturally have requested on a Subject of such Moment to the State, it would have saved so little Time as not to equal in my Judgment in publick Importance the deferring the Matter until the Meeting of the present Assembly.

‘ 2d. Because, being entirely unacquainted both with the Character and Abilities of the Gentleman nominated, I must totally have relied upon Mr. Morris’s Judgment, of which, though I entertain the highest Opinion, I could not think proper implicitly to rely upon in an official Character in which I must suppose it was expected that I should exercise my own. And,

‘ Lastly. Because I thought it would naturally give greater Satisfaction to the People to have the Nomination of so important an Officer approved of by their Representatives in Assembly, than by the Executive alone. Having therefore referred the Matter, for the Reasons assigned, to the Honourable House, and the Gentleman appointed by Mr. Morris having for some Time attended to know your Determination respecting him, I doubt not you will enter upon the Consideration of the Matter with all convenient Dispatch.

‘ WIL. LIVINGSTON.’

Samuel Hugg, Esquire, elected to represent the County of Gloucester in the Assembly, having forwarded the Certificate of his Election, accompanied with a Letter, setting forth, that he could not at present attend the House of Assembly, owing to the Indisposition of his Family; whereupon,

Ordered, That the Certificate be returned to Mr. Hugg, and that he be requested to attend the next Sitting of Assembly, and save the County the Expence of a new Election, which, if ordered, cannot procure the County a new Representative this Sitting.

The Auditor of Accounts attended the House, and reported the State of sundry Accounts; by which it appears that the Accounts of Cornelius Haring, appointed to pay Bounty and Subsistence to the Troops raised in the County of Bergen, in Virtue of a Law passed June 2d, 1779; and of Frederick Feelinghuysen, one of the Commissioners of forfeited Estates in the County of Somerset, ought to stand balanced;

Resolved, That the House do agree to the same.

And that there is due to the State from Cornelius Haring, Agent for forfeited and sequestered Estates in the County of Bergen, the Sum of Eleven-pence;

Resolved, That the same be passed to his Credit in his next Account. And

And that there is due from the State to Joseph Inflee, late Sheriff of the County of Hunterdon, the Sum of Thirteen Pounds Seven Shillings and Nine-pence; Resolved, That the Treasurer do pay the same.

Likewise a Re-Statement of the Account of Alexander Chambers, late Receiver-General of Clothing of this State; by which it appears that there was a Mistake in the Settlement of his said Account made on the 31st May, 1781; and that there was really due to the said Alexander Chambers the Sum of Forty-two Pounds Eighteen Shillings and Four-pence in Specie, instead of the Value of Eighty Pounds Sixteen Shillings, Continental, on the 6th November, 1778, as allowed in the above Settlement;

Resolved, That the Treasurer do pay to the said Alexander Chambers the Sum of £. 42 18 4 in Specie, instead of the Sum so allowed in the Settlement made May 31, 1781; and that he do pay the said Alexander Chambers the Interest of the said Sum of £. 42 18 4, from the said 22d Day of April, 1778, and the Interest of the Sum of £. 30 10 9, Specie, from the 26th Day of November, 1776, and the Interest of the Sum of £. 165 5 9, from the 1st Day of January, 1777, the Time when the said Sums severally became due to him, as appears by the aforesaid Settlement, until the same are or were paid;

Ordered, That Mr. Hendrickson do carry the said Accounts and the above Resolutions to the Council, and request their Allowance of the said Accounts, and Concurrence in the said Resolutions.

The House adjourned till To-morrow Morning nine o'Clock.

Saturday, December 6, 1783.
